POLICEMAN CLUBS GANGSTER WHEN ATTACKED BY TEN

Knocks Williamsburg Prisoner

Senseless After Being Cut and Battered.

Policeman Henry McCloy, of the Hedford Avenue station, Williams burg, is the first on the force to put Mayor Mitchel's admonitions on the proper use of the nightstick against gunmen and gangsters into practical

When attacked by a gang of ten men on North Seventh Street, Williamsburg, at 3 A. M. to-day he de-fended himself with his locust and eat one of the gangsters into insensibility before he could drag him from the rest of the gang as they tried to rescue their fellow.

A doctor from Williamsburg Hospital had to work over Peter Gaimaro, the beaten gangster, for half an hour before he could bring him ack to consciousness, and Policeman McCloy's face needed the services of the surgeon's needle and adhesive

McCloy's captain complimented him on bringing in his prisoner.

McCloy encountered the gang a Seventh and Havemeyer Streets after two pedestrians complained of having been attacked. The toughs refused to move on at Me-Cloy's orders and one of them, Gaimare, attacked the policeman. While he was trying to subdue Gai-maro the rest leaped upon the policeman's back and he struck out with his club. He finally managed to drag his prisoner to the telephone box at Driggs Avenue and North Seventh Street, but there the gang leaped upon him again, trying to rescue their

In the bitter fight which followed the policeman lost half of his clothes and more than one of the gangsters suffered blows they will not soon forget. Finally Policeman Tucker came to McCloy's rescue and they managed to get the prisoner to the station.

"I." Workman Is Killed by Pall.
Following the injury of three men by an accident on the elevated struc-ture of the B. R. T. at Fulton Street and Webster Avenue yesterday, where Terry & Tench, contractors, are strengthening and widening the tracks, Patrick McQueeney of No. 60 Hull Street, a riveter, was killed at the same place to-day. He was cut-
